

Light & Wonder Appoints Muthu Palanichamy as Senior Vice President & General Manager of Global Systems

Sixteen-year Company veteran leads continued growth and evolution of global Systems business

LAS VEGAS — [DATE], 2026 — Light & Wonder, Inc. (ASX: LNW) (together with its subsidiaries “Light & Wonder,” “L&W” or the “Company”) today announced the appointment of Muthu Palanichamy as Senior Vice President & General Manager, Global Systems. Palanichamy, who assumed the role last month, leads the Company’s global Systems business. In this role, he oversees product strategy and roadmap, R&D, delivery and operations, and customer engagement for the Systems portfolio.

A 16-year Light & Wonder veteran, Palanichamy has held leadership roles across Client Services, Operations and Systems Research & Development, building extensive experience across the business and its global customer base. Most recently, he played a key role in advancing the Company’s Systems product strategy and driving initiatives focused on innovation, operational excellence, and customer success.

Since assuming the role in August, Palanichamy has overseen nine competitive systems replacements, including deployments at multiple properties in North America demonstrating continued customer confidence in Light & Wonder’s Systems portfolio and the strength of its technology and solutions.

In his expanded leadership role, Palanichamy will oversee the continued growth and evolution of the Company’s Systems business, with a focus on advancing its global product strategy, strengthening long-term customer partnerships and delivering innovative solutions that create value for operators. Drawing on his extensive experience across the organization, he will also continue to drive collaboration across the business and support the teams responsible for delivering Light & Wonder’s Systems solutions to customers around the world.

“Muthu brings a unique combination of deep technical expertise, operational experience and a strong understanding of our customers and their businesses,” said Siobhan Lane, Chief Executive Officer, Gaming, at Light & Wonder. “Over the past 16 years, he has played a crucial role in the evolution of our Systems business and has built tremendous trust across our teams and with our customers. We are excited to have him lead the business into its next phase of growth and innovation.”

“I am incredibly proud to take on this role and continue a journey with Light & Wonder that began 16 years ago,” said Palanichamy. “We have built a strong Systems business with an exceptional team and a portfolio that continues to evolve alongside the needs of our customers. I look forward to building on that momentum, deepening our customer partnerships and continuing to advance the solutions that help operators get more from their casino floors.”
