

Scientific Games Builds on Player-Favorite Game Series with the Release of Foxin' Twins™

LAS VEGAS – June 4, 2019 – Scientific Games Corporation (NASDAQ: SGMS) (“Scientific Games” or the “Company”) marks a new era for a popular game series with the release of Foxin' Twins™. This new addition iterates on the success of predecessors Foxin' Wins® and Foxin' Wins Again® with fresh mechanics and features designed to re-invigorate and keep players engaged. Foxin' Twins is available now via the Company’s Open Gaming System content aggregation platform.

Foxin' Wins, a top-performing legacy brand from Scientific Games’ digital division, originates from their NextGen Gaming studio. The latest ‘Twin’ moniker was introduced to support the addition of the new Dual Reels mechanic and provides an engaging and playful environment, organic to the Foxin' Wins brand and supporting characters.

Tom Wood, Chief Creative Officer for SG Digital, said, “Foxin' Twins is an excellent new installment in one of our most popular game series. The Dual Reels and random wild features provide invigorating new experiences while still paying homage to this legacy brand. I think our partners and our players will really enjoy this new take on a fantastic theme.”

Random game features can crossover between reel-sets when they hit, maximizing win opportunities and crafting a uniquely dynamic slot gaming experience. Staying true to the Foxin' Wins family of games, popular features such as Super Bet® remain present in Foxin' Twins for even more win potential and support for early player adoption and loyalty.
