

LIGHT & WONDER EXPANDS AGREEMENT WITH THE TWENTY-NINE PALMS BAND OF MISSION INDIANS WITH INSTALLMENT OF NEW, INNOVATIVE LOYALTY PLATFORM AT ITS CASINO PROPERTIES

New Light & Wonder loyalty solution platform to help bridge data and enhance player journey, engagement

LAS VEGAS (January 6, 2023) – Las Vegas-based, cross-platform global games leader, Light & Wonder, Inc. (NASDAQ: LNW) (“Light & Wonder,” “L&W”), expands its relationship and contract with The Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians by integrating its new robust loyalty and customer engagement platform into its casino properties including Spotlight 29 Casino and Tortoise Rock Casino located in California. The loyalty solution will interface and bridge the data across Twenty-Nine Palms’ current ACSC™ Casino Management System (CMS) – created by Light & Wonder – as well as its Kiosk, Point of Sale (POS) system, and Entertainment Showroom to provide one seamless customer journey and engagement experience.

“We value the long-time relationship and trust that we have cultivated with the casino properties of The Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians,” said Jon Wolfe, President of Global Systems & Services, Light & Wonder. “Our new platform offers a tremendous suite of capabilities and best-in-class technologies that will enable Twenty-Nine Palms casinos to deliver a consistent and frictionless player experience.”

The following new features from Light & Wonder are now live from Spotlight 29 Casino and Tortoise Rock Casino:

- CORE – Provides fundamental tools necessary to configure and manage an enterprise loyalty program and can define characteristics such as customer tiers, a variety of loyalty currencies that can be earned or gifted, and the operations that participate in the program.
- Offers and Promotions – Allows retail offers to be setup within Light & Wonder’s system and electronically redeemed by integration into InfoGenesis. Showroom and other events can be setup through the robust inventory booking and check-in module. It also allows for individual and cross-property drawings to be configured for guests to participate in.
- Publisher & Journey Builder – Powers the ability to dynamically distribute events to external systems or interfaces based on configurable transaction types and is used to communicate with customers via email or text messages. Also manages the configuration process for Publisher-subscribed events, such as tier advancement, point expiration, offers, event/showroom reminders, and many more. Configuration settings include, but are not limited to, communication channels, delivery date/time, distribution frequency, and geography.

“We’ve already experienced first-hand the incredible value and power of Light & Wonder’s ACSC Casino Management System as it has allowed us to enhance our operations while delivering a higher level of service to our customers,” said Steve Libauskas, Vice President of Information Technology, The Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians. “As we expand our contract with Light & Wonder, we are thrilled about the integration of their new platform into our existing systems, including ACSC, and are confident that this will further allow us to drive engagement, player satisfaction and ultimately business.”

About The Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians

The Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians trace their origins back to the Chemehuevi, a peaceful and nomadic tribe whose territory once covered parts of California, Utah, Arizona, and Southern Nevada. In 1867, a group of Chemehuevi settled at the Oasis of Mara in Twentynine Palms. The Twenty-nine Palms Band of Mission Indians are their descendants. Today, the Tribe's lands consist of two Reservations, which are located near the town of Twentynine Palms and the City of Coachella. The Twenty-Nine Palms Band of Mission Indians will continue to focus on providing opportunities of growth and prosperity for the Tribe's future generations.
