

Scientific Games Awarded Standalone Platform Provider of the Year at 2019 SBC Awards

LAS VEGAS – Dec 3, 2019 – Scientific Games Corporation (NASDAQ: SGMS) (“Scientific Games” or the “Company”) received one of the industry’s highest accolades during the 2019 SBC Awards, taking home the ‘Standalone Platform Provider of the Year’ award for its OpenSports and OpenGaming platforms.

Scientific Games provides industry-leading betting and gaming experiences that power entertainment for millions of players in regulated markets worldwide. The win underpins the Company’s ongoing focus on putting the player at the heart of its offering. During the awards ceremony held on December 3, judges honoured Scientific Games with Standalone Platform Provider of the year, recognizing the Company’s OpenSports and OpenGaming cutting edge technology, features and services. OpenSports is a world-class sports betting product sweet that empowers customers with modular technology they can mix and match to best suit their needs. OpenGaming offers partners access to more than 2000 games from SG Digital and third-party studios plus a leading platform and player account services.

Huw Thomas, Chief Strategy and Marketing Officer for SG Digital, said, “We’re making great progress as a leader in the development of powerful player experiences for the global sports and igaming industry. Whilst it’s wonderful recognition for our platform technology, this award is really a testament to the hard work of our people, the trust our customers place in us and the breadth of our long-standing relationships with world-class partners.”
